GENERAL DEBILITY and Indigestion

Made Her Life Miserable, but She is Cured by

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Read the testimony of Mrs. E. G. Torro, Coburg, Victoria, whose portrait is also given:

Some few years ago I suffered terribly with indigestion and general debility. I could not sleep, and my condition was such as to make my life miserable. None of the many remedies I tried did me any good, and I despaired of ever getting better. One of my friends told me of the blood-purifying and strength-giving properties of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and I began taking it. Before I had finished the first bottle I felt better, and was thus encouraged to give the medicine a thorough trial. In all I used four bottles, and then was perfectly cured of the grievous trouble which had afflicted me. I now recommend, to anyone suffering as I did.

AT INDEPENDENCE PARK.

Pleasant Dance by Lei Hima Club New Year's Eve.

The Independence Park pavilion on New Year's eve was the scene of one of the most pleasant social affairs of the past year. In spite of the threatening weather and the many engagements unavoidable at that season, a large number of the elite enjoyed the most attractive evening's entertainment that the Lei Hima Club had provided.

The decorations were well arranged and not overdone. Flags hung and draped were tastefully interspersed with green palms, ferns and the club's colors. Ample refreshments were served during the evening.

The evening's program included several Hawaiian airs by the Kawaihau club and an original composition sung by Sylvester Kalamo, accompanied by Professor Berger. The New Year was ushered in amidst a tooting of horns, etc., to find everyone enjoying themselves to their heart's content. The last dance finished at about 2:15 a. m. Amongst those present were:

Mesdames—J. W. Monsarrat, E. Graham, —Gunn, Strong, E. F. Bishop, G. H. Paris, W. P. Boyd, J. N. Wright, J. W. Winter, A. Barnes,

The great feature of yesterday's proceedings was the reception held by President and Mrs. Dole, at the Executive Building, at 11 o'clock. RECEPTION AND LUNCH.

THE Y. M. C. A. BUILDING CROWDED YESTERDAY.

Handsomely Decorated Tables, Pretty Waitresses and a Good Things to Eat and a Caterer.

The annual reception and lunch given to young men by the Young Men's Christian Association from 12 to 2 yesterday was a great success, and the rooms were thronged with visitors between those hours.

The ladies who received were Mrs. S. B. Dole, Mrs. F. J. Lowrey, Mrs. D. P. Birnie and Mrs. Paul Neumann. The tables were decorated by and in charge of Mrs. S. M. Damon.

The collation was prepared and served by Mesdames J. A. Gilman, E. A. Jones, F. B. Damon, C. H. Atherton, Henry Waterhouse, A. B. Wood and Misses Pinder and Carter.

The young ladies who waited at the tables were the Misses Sadie Carter, Hartwell, Afong, Hopper, Miller, Alexander, Needham, Gilman, Jones, Mossman, Lorenson, Green, McIntyre, Ladd, Waity, Tanner, Paty, Girvin and Benner.

Secretary Corbett and F. J. Lowrey attended to the hats and canes of the guests and otherwise made themselves generally useful.

Over three hundred people took lunch during the two hours, besides a large number who called to extend New Year's greetings.

About 1000 dozen crawfish are being shipped every week from the five-mile slough just above Westport, Oregon, to the markets of Portland, San Francisco and Chicago.

Attempts are now being made to acclimate Scotch grouse in Denmark. The birds thrive well on the extensive moorland of Jutland. They are fenced until the end of the next year.

THE Y M C A CONCERT.

THE NEW ORCHESTRA MAKES ITS FIRST APPEARANCE.

Corbett's Boys in Gymnastic Exercises—A Novelty in Club Swinging—Mrs. Black's Recitation.

The hall of the Young Men's Christian Association was comfortably filled last night, the occasion being the entertainment in aid of the building fund. Much interest was manifested in the new orchestra, which made its first public appearance, and in the language of a prominent member of the Association "covered itself all over with glory."

The proficiency shown in the rendition of the four numbers apportioned to the orchestra fairly surprised the audience, which showed its appreciation by loud applause. The "Silver Bells" gavotte was so well rendered that an encore was insisted on. Mr. Keough and his band may well feel proud of their first reception. Several volunteers added to the strength of the band last night, there being twenty-two performers besides the leader.

Secretary Corbett's boys, as they are called, or more properly the junior boys' class of the gymnasium to the number of twelve gave a pretty drill in the exercise of the muscles, following it with a dumbbell exhibition, which reflected credit on teacher and pupils alike.

Miss Kate McGrew was suffering from a cold and was unable to sing. Her violin solo was rendered with the usual artistic elegance for which the young performer is noted. She was accompanied on the piano by Prof. Herold. Miss Grace Richards rendered two vocal solos which were applauded. Mrs. Thomas Black's recitation "Carew Must Not Ring Tonight" was a very pleasing rendition of a old favorite and displayed the ladies elocutionary ability to advantage.

The features of the entertainment that seemed to find most favor with the audience, however, were the novel club swinging of D. K. Unauna; and the trio of W. J. Cuelho and two other members of the Young Hawaiian Institute. For Mr. Unauna's performance the room was darkened and the clubs used were covered with burning spirits. The various figures described in the dark by the gyrating and revolving clubs were beautiful and novel, and so pleased the audience that the entire exhibition had to be repeated. Mr. Cuelho, although suffering with a sore throat, sang again and again at the demand of the audience, and the trio of Hawaiian boys scored a big success.

The receipts and expenses have not yet been figured up, but a goodly sum was realized from the performance which will lessen the remaining debt on the building considerably.

THE PRISONERS RELEASED.

The Final Scene of the January Uprising.

In accordance with the recommendation of the Council of State, detailed in Tuesday's BULLETIN, Charles T. Gulick, W. T. Seward, John F. Bowler, Robert W. Wilcox, John H. Wise, Joseph Clark, J. W. Bipikane and John Lilikoi were pardoned by President Dole yesterday morning.

About half-past 9 o'clock they were called in Jailor Low's room where the Attorney-General, Minister Damon and Judge Magoon were present to represent the Government. The pardons were read by the Attorney General, who made a few appropriate remarks expressing the hope that the Government would have no occasion to regret its leniency. On behalf of the prisoners Major Seward thanked the Government for its clemency and a general handshaking ensued. Quite a crowd of natives were gathered at the prison gates and a hearty reception was given to the newly-pardoned prisoners.

Edward Simmons, the artist who designed the decorations for the new Criminal Court building in New York, rejects the idea of blind Justice, and has depicted that deity with both eyes open, holding her scales in one hand and the American flag in the other.
